

INPACT BOARD OF DIRECTORS

December 2020 – November 2025

Board Member – Chairman

Kenneth Nyehoora Mugumya

Kenneth is the Regional Engagement Director for East & Southern Africa at the Community Health Academy at Last Mile Health. A health and social policy specialist, he has provided leadership in health systems strengthening, capacity building of health workers, implementation of digital health initiatives over the years, with deep experience working with governments, the donor community, and implementing partners at the international and national levels. He has also provided technical support and leadership in community health policy development, national health sector development plans, and advocacy. He is currently focused on health worker capacity building using digital health platforms and strengthening community health systems to bring key interdisciplinary players together to strengthen primary healthcare interventions. He has an MA in health and social policy from London Metropolitan University and a bachelor's degree in social work and social administration from Uganda Christian University, completing an MBA from Nkozi University. Completed a postgraduate program in Health Care Management from London Training College and Implementation Science Course from University of Washington School of Public Health.

Email: kennethmugumya@gmail.com

Board Vice Chair and Public Health & Clinical Services Advisory

Dr. Richard Mugahi

Dr. Mugahi believes in becoming a global health professional with excellent knowledge and skills of sustainable health systems that can deliver quality and comprehensive health care to communities that need it most.

He has worked as a Clinician at various service delivery points for more than ten years, Health Manager at (Facility, health Sub-district, District and National level) as; Health facility In-charge, Health Subdistrict In-charge, District Health Officer, Ag. Assistant Commissioner Health services and Team leader community surveillance Stop Polio.

He is a national trainer of various health disciplines in the health sector (Quality Improvement, Performance Management, HIV/AIDS Care, Result Based Financing and TB Management). He has participated in the role out of various national health strategies and frameworks to the sub national level. He has also been actively engaged in the control of epidemics especially Viral Hemorrhagic fevers and COVID-19 in Uganda.

Email: rmugahi99@gmail.com

Board Member- Human Resource Management Advisory

Rachel Dumba

Rachel is a partner with the Steadman Global Consulting Limited and an expert in Stakeholder Engagement, Human Capital Management, Strategic Planning, Government Relations, Business Process Analysis, Organizational and Institutional Design, Change Management, Organizational Cultural Transformation, Governance, Training and Capacity Building.

Rachel, an International Strategy, Management and Development Expert, is a graduate of the Manchester Metropolitan University in the United Kingdom with a Masters’

Degree in Strategic Human Resources Management and a certified Professional member of the Chartered Institute of Personnel and Development (CIPD UK). Rachel currently sits on the Sanlam Uganda and Junior Achievement Boards as well as a number of private investment Boards and formerly served on the Uganda Health Marketing Group and Forum for Women in Democracy Boards in Uganda. She further has supported National Bodies and served on Councils such as The Federation of Uganda Employers Board and The National Task Force on COVID-19 in Uganda.

Email: rdumba@steadmanglobal.com

Board member – Finance management and Audit advisory

Patrick Magezi

Mr Magezi is a Ugandan national with Master’s Degree in Business Administration (Finance). He is a financial management and operations expert with over 25 years of experience, including 17 years in director-level financial and administrative leadership roles on large USAID and Global Fund to fight AIDS, tuberculosis and malaria supported projects in Nigeria. He has experience in starting up as well as closing projects. Currently, he is Director Finance and Administration for USAID/Domestic Revenue Mobilization for Development project. Previously, he worked as a consultant with Captiva Africa Ltd carrying out a programme capacity assessment for Global Alliance for Vaccines and Immunization (GAVI) for 4 states in Nigeria. Patrick worked as a consultant to assist QED PLC in starting up a new USAID project in Uganda as Director Finance and Administration. He has also served as a consultant for Initiatives Inc. USA on USAID Advocacy for Better Health project in Uganda; employed as Group Leader for a Global Fund funded project implemented by a German company called GFA Consulting Group. He worked a Director of Finance & Administration for USAID/STRIDES for Family Health project in Uganda; Director, Country Operations Management Unit, for US based Medicines sciences for Health (MSH). He is proficient in managing large donor grants peaking g at managing a multi country project budget of $400million. Patrick has extensive knowledge of USAID policies and regulations, USG cost accounting standards, and grant management best practices, and successful record of accomplishment in developing, setting up and managing compliant financial and administrative systems and controls. He has diverse experience working with local organizations to build staff financial management, compliance and procurement capacity, and establish management capacity for direct USG awards.

Email: patrick.magezi@gmail.com

Board Member – Environment conservation Advisory

Dr. Joy Tukahirwa

Tukahirwa Joy Margaret Nee' Biteete (PhD) is a Natural Resources Management (NRM) specialist involved in research and development towards building socio ecological resilience among small scale farmers. She has over 30 years of experience working with national as well as international research systems to harness improved livelihoods with healthy landscapes across scales. Currently, as a Founder and Trustee of Uganda Landcare Network (ULN) - a national platform promoting landcare stewardship, she is a team leader at ULN Secretariat. She serves in other various capacities including a representative of Beyond Subsistence (BS) championing undertaking agroforestry and development including customizing Master TreeGrower (MTG) programme among resource poor communities in Africa; a member of the Technical Advisory Group (TAG) of Restore East and South Africa (ESA) program under Global Ever Greening Alliance; and a member of Global Landcare Board.

Email: j.tukahirwa@infocom.co.ug

Board Member – Legal & statutory Compliance

Barnabas Twesigomuhangi Kitunga

Barnabas is an advocate of the High Court of Uganda working in the commercial Law Practice and Civil Litigation department at Zawedde Lubwama & Co. Advocates. He holds a Bachelor's Degree in Law from Makerere University, a diploma in Legal Practice from the Law Development Centre, a master's Degree in Educational Management and Administration from Makerere University and a Bachelor of Arts degree in Education also from Makerere University among others.

Barnabas has significant experience in commercial litigation, commercial dispute resolution, Civil Litigation and Company Advisory matters as well as employment matters. He has appeared on a wide variety of commercial and arbitration matters in the High Court of Uganda, both as sole counsel and as junior to leading counsel to obtain freezing, search, disclosure evidence preservation orders and others.

In addition to participating in various trials, his advocacy experience covers making and defending a broad range of interlocutory applications, including those from summary judgement, strike out, pre-action disclosure among other Orders. Barnabas has also participated in several successful commercial mediations as well as labour dispute resolutions.

Email: twesigyebarnabasp@gmail.com

Board Member – Multi- sectoral & Government relation Advisory

Prisca Boonabantu

Prisca Boonabantu is a retired Under Secretary of the Uganda Public Service. She is a graduate of public policy, administration and management at both bachelor's and master's degree level from Makerere University and Uganda Management Institute respectively.

She has served at various ranks of the Administrative Cadre in the following Ministries: Trade, Industry and Cooperatives; Finance, Planning and Economic Development; Local Government; Agriculture, Animal Industry and Fisheries; Health; and at the Cabinet Secretariat where she kept track of policies of Government and participated in developing the capacity of Government actors in the development and formulation of policies that are responsive to the needs of the citizens.

By the time of her retirement she had served as Under Secretary for 11 years the last 5 of which she served at the Ministry of Energy and Mineral Development, doubling as Accounting Officer for the Ministry for 4 years.

Email: pboonabantu@gmail.com

Board Member – Partnerships and Communications Advisory

Amanda Agaba Ntambiko (MSW.LCSW)

Do Things. Tell Stories

Amanda Agaba Ntambiko is first and at heart a therapist social worker, a published story teller, all round creative, and a serial entrepreneur. She is a top rated documentation consultant for development organizations with over 10 years' experience, serving nearly 50 clients and still counting. Amanda has a Master's degree and advanced clinical training in Social work from Salem State University, and Harvard University Massachusetts-USA, Knowledge Management skills from Johns Hopkins University Center for Communication Programs, leadership, etiquette and consensus building experience. On a good day Amanda is laughing laps with her vibrant family, juggling youth work, sitting still to

Gods whispers and sharing love. The future is bright, and she has her eye on building a new enterprise 'Next Level', to build capacity, expand networks and opportunities for communications and learning specialists as well as publish her short stories- 'Underneath their wigs, what our mothers never told.'

Email: amandaagaba@gmail.com